

18 mile walk across beautiful Shropshire countryside, taking in rural villages, riverside walks and along the Severn into Shrewsbury

Starting at the Princess Royal Hospital, Telford, the route takes us out past Apley Woods, the former site of a Georgian Mansion.

Heading to Shawbirch, we continue on to Admaston and Wrockwardine Village where we turn past the church and out to Charlton Village.

In Charlton, we turn right toward Walcot and cross the Allscott Road at The Grove pub, continuing over the weir on the River Tern. Turning left, the route takes us to the village of Withington and then on to Upton Magna, where we turn right at The Haughmond Inn and on to Uffington.

In Uffington, we join the cycle path (National Cycle Route 81) which takes us along the river (taking a short detour through a small housing estate), past the weir and on under the English Bridge towards The Quarry. Approaching the Quarry we cross the bridge at Kingsland Bridge, until we reach Roman Road.

Take Mytton Oak Road and carry on until you reach the Royal Shrewsbury Hospital

Turn right and complete the final 200 yards before you reach a welcome drink at our Summer Fete, at the Shropshire Education and Conference Centre.
